The Last of the Mohicans (Bantam Classics) By James Fenimore Cooper

The quintessential story of the American frontier

Set during the French and Indian War, The Last of the Mohicans is the second installment in James Fenimore Cooper's Leatherstocking Tales and one of the greatest action stories ever told.

When the Munro sisters and their traveling party are betrayed by Magua, a Huron guide, the skilled and courageous woodsman Natty Bumppo—better known as Hawkeye—and his Mohican comrades Chingachgook and Uncas come to their rescue. The thrilling adventures that ensue, from the siege of a British fort by French forces to the clever infiltration of a native village to the dramatic final showdown atop a rocky cliff, are an entertaining and sincere tribute to a way of life that was already vanishing from the American wilderness.

—Joseph Conrad
