Editorial Review

About the Author

Author and illustrator, public speaker and musician, Warren Hanson has his name some of the most beloved books in the country. He illustrated Tom Hegg's classic "A Cup of Christmas Tea," as well as four books about Peef, the colorful bear. He wrote and illustrated "The Next Place," one of the most cherished for those who grieve. Other books by Warren are "Older Love", "Kiki's Hats", "Reading With Dad", "Paw Prints in the Stars", "Today's Special", "Dear Me", and many more.

On his business card, right under Warren Hanson's name, it says "illustrator, author, amateur." As an amateur, he goes back to the word's Latin root, which means "someone who does something purely for the love of doing it." Warren Hanson love what he does. And it shows. Warren lives with his wife Becky in Houston, Texas.
