Dances At Moonrise: Jim DiNapoli By Laura Janca

This book contains some of trip reports by Jim DiNapoli. Jim summited all 58 of the ranked 14ers in Colorado. He also had 44 of them completed in calendar winter and had hoped to finish them in the 2014-2015 winter year. At that time he would have been only the 6th person to make this accomplishment. Sadly, he was diagnosed with pancreatic cancer in November of 2013 and passed away in March 2014. This book and the photographs are part of Jim's legacy.

Editorial Review

About the Author

This is Laura's second book. It is a dedication and devotional to her loving friend Jim DiNapoli. Before he passed away from pancreatic cancer in March of 2014, she made a promise to publish a book about him. Though their relationship was cut short, he left a profound affect on Laura so this book is her way of keeping a promise.
