About the Author

I was hired as a Flight Attendant by American Airlines in 1986 and have been based in Dallas, Chicago, and Honolulu and have flown as both a domestic and international Flight Attendant. During my career I've been awarded the Professional Flight Attendant Award, been selected to work aboard charters for major league sports teams and have represented American Airlines at celebrity and charity events all over the world. I have also served as a Flight Attendant consultant on motion picture and television productions, provided Flight Attendant related commentary for high profile media outlets and served as a hiring consultant for airlines worldwide. After 30 years in the airline industry, I am proud to be the go to source on all things Flight Attendant and the industry recognized Flight Attendant career expert. We provide inside information that simply cannot be found elsewhere and we have helped thousands of clients leave a less than exciting work life for an office with a view and allowed others to fulfill a life long dream. We are the best selling, most trusted Flight Attendant hiring resource available and we are recognized by airlines around the world. Let us help you make this the year you change your life and begin a fun and exciting Flight Attendant career!
